Instructions to authors for use of Amendment to Publication Agreement

Step 1: Sign your publisher’s copyright transfer or publication agreement when you submit your final manuscript for publication with the following statement written above your signature:

“subject to attached amendment”

Step 2: Attach this amendment (next page) with the information filled in and your signature on the bottom.

Step 3: Send both to publisher.

Step 4: Keep a copy of your fully-signed agreement.
AMENDMENT TO PUBLICATION AGREEMENT

1. THIS Amendment hereby modifies the attached Publication Agreement concerning the following Article:

(manuscript title)

(journal name)

2. The parties to the Publication Agreement and to this Amendment are:

____________________________________________________________________________________

(corresponding author, the “Author”),

and

(the “Publisher”).

3. The parties agree that wherever there is any conflict between this Amendment and the Publication Agreement, the provisions of this Amendment prevail, to the extent that greater rights are retained by the Author, and the Publication Agreement shall be construed accordingly.

4. Notwithstanding any terms in the Publication Agreement to the contrary and in addition to the rights retained by Author or licensed by Publisher to Author in the Publication Agreement and any fair use rights of Author, Author and Publisher agree that the Author shall also retain the non-exclusive right to make, or to authorize others to make, the final peer-reviewed manuscript of the Article available in digital form over the Internet, including but not limited to a website under the control of the Author or the Author’s employer or through any digital repository, such as the National Library of Medicine’s PubMed Central database, provided that Author shall not authorize public access to the final peer-reviewed manuscript any earlier than twelve months from the date that Publisher first makes the published version available to Publisher’s subscribers, or a shorter time period if permitted by the Publication Agreement. “Final peer-reviewed manuscript” means the final version of the Article accepted for journal publication, and includes all modifications from the peer review process.
